S. S. CHINA STRUCK BY HEAVY SEAS

The P. M. S. S. China which arrived yesterday ten days out from Yokohama, did not pass unscathed through the howling nor'-easter which she encountered almost as soon as she left the last Japanese port. Heavy head winds piled up seas around her bow which broke heavily over on the deck and kept it awash much of the time of the trip. On the first day out of Yokohama the China struck into some particularly nasty weather and one big sea 7:45 1:65 4:2 rapped the port side so hard that one of the life boats in the davits was rushed in. Later on one of the jib sails vas carried away. The gale blew with trip, making everything aboard about as disagreeable to a lot of sea-sick passengers as could have been imagin-

HAWAII HAS A SECOND TRACY

Francisco Lopez, four times an escaped convict, is at large and evidently has decided to follow the example of Tracy. Since his escape ten days ago, Lopez is reported by Porto Ricans to have said that he will not be taken alive again. He has a revolver and declares he will use it.

The latest trace of Lopez is found from the story of Juan Hernandez, who came into the police station yesterday with two frightful slashes on the side of his face, the work of the escaped convict. Hernandez, who is a Porto Rican laborer from Maui, states that he was on his way to Laupahoehoe to engage in work. Wednesday evening he visited the mauka camp at Pepeekeo for refreshments. Here, according to his story, he was set on by Francisco Lopez and a companion.
